

Charlotte and James' GARDEN ADVENTURE!

A Story About Growing, Helping, and Having Fun

A Kids Garden Club Book

for Grades 1-2

Charlotte smiled.

James smiled.

Sky barked.

“Let’s visit the garden!”

The sun was warm.

The birds sang.

Sky ran ahead.

He wagged his tail.

Grandma waved.

“Welcome!”

“I have work
for everyone.”

Charlotte picked up a watering can.

James grabbed a little shovel.

Sky wanted to help, too.

They planted tiny bean seeds.

One.

Two.

Three.

“Grow, little seeds!”

Sky sniffed the ground.

Sniff.

Sniff.

“What do you smell?”

James found a worm.

“It helps the garden.”

Charlotte smiled.

They watered the seeds.

Splash!

Splash!

The soil drank the water.

“Look!” said Charlotte.

The bean plants grew.

Up, up, up they climbed!

“They are so tall!” said James.

“Beans for us to enjoy!”

They picked the beans.

Plip!

Plop!

Into the basket they went.

“What a great garden!”

Charlotte and James cheered.

They took the beans to Grandma.

Grandma smiled.

“You worked hard in the garden,”
she said.

“I am proud of you.”

James and Charlotte smiled.

They love the garden!

Grandma cooked the beans.

They were so good!

Yum! Yum! Yum!

It was a perfect day
in the garden.

Charlotte, James,
and Grandma smiled.

They will garden again tomorrow!

Gardening together makes happy hearts!

The sun was setting.

It was time to go home.

“Goodbye, garden!”
said Charlotte and James.

“Thank you for giving us
so much food and fun!”

They waved to their garden friend.

“See you tomorrow!”

Gardens grow more than food.
They grow memories.

Charlotte, James, and Sky
walked home.

They were happy and tired.

They learned a lot in the garden.

“Gardening is fun!”
said Charlotte.

“Yes! And we can help things grow,” said James.

They can’t wait for their next garden adventure!

The End.

What did you love most about Charlotte, James,
and Sky’s garden day?
Draw a picture of your favorite part!

